

Grade Inflation Policy

In all regular 100-level classes, instructors in the Department of Astronomy should endeavor to have their final class GPA average come out near 2.75. The department will review GPA results in its 100-level classes annually to see how close to the guideline we come as a department and as individual instructors.